

Introducing our new Doggy Dayschool!

We are changing our daycare to an enrichment based model!

Why are we changing?

We have learned that one size does not fit all when it comes to doggy daycare. Dogs can get overly tired and overly stimulated by playing all day without adequate rest. Dogs can be bored from the same routine. Our new format ensures your dog gets plenty of rest as well as excellent quality of play. Your pet will still get playtime with other dogs, but we'll add some special group activities and more one-on-one attention with the staff so that every day is a unique and fun day tailored specifically for your pet.

Doggy Dayschool includes:

- Fewer dogs per day - more one-on-one time
- Customized play & rest time
- Active individual interaction with caregivers
- Quiet bonding time
- Training, Fitness & Tricks
- Small curated playtime

What will your dog do all day?

- Fetch
- Pool Time
- Massage Time
- Tricks
- Fitness games
- Tug Times
- Obstacle courses
- Interactive Toy Times
- Bubbles!
- Individual Play Sessions
- Party Times
- Small Group Play Time

But...Will he still be tired?

Absolutely! Your dog will go home tired but not so exhausted he can't eat dinner or interact with the family. We are striving for quality play sessions balanced with adequate rest so your dog doesn't get injuries from over exercising.
